this way, you will be able to learn the language. you will be able to hear expressions that you do not know. watch the language you are learning in the subtitles. hindi movies and series have a special place in my heart. i grew up watching them on tv and saw my first hindi film at a local cinema when i was nine years old. it was an instant hit, and i have been hooked ever since. many years later i have made several hindi movies, shot in india, and have appeared in some of the most famous hindi films of all time. it was a great privilege to be a part of the hindi film industry, and i will always be grateful to my friends, colleagues and the amazing team at deepika. firstly, hindi movies are an incredible way to learn about india. they are so rich and complex, that you can learn so much about a country without even having to leave your couch.

for example, i grew up knowing a lot of hindi dialogues, with the rest learnt from watching films. i knew that a bus means a 'cab', that a 'rickshaw' is a small car and that a 'chicken run' is a cheap pub. i can even count the number of hindi films that i have seen without counting, and i can easily recite the names of the main characters of any hindi film i have ever seen!
